

I AM HERA

I AM a Greek goddess, the protector of women.

I AM sensitive, precise, and versatile.

I AM strong, confident, and powerful.

I was created to empower women.

I was born to climb. I AM HERA.

Evolv introduces team member Lisa Rands - world-class climber and Climb4Life volunteer and the HERA women's climbing shoe.

1% of all HERA sales will be donated to the HERA Women's Cancer Foundation to help find a cure for ovarian cancer.

Evolv is proud to be part of the solution. To see our entire product line and list of retailers go to www.evolvclimbing.com or call us 714.891.0550
